Collect

God, our refuge and strength,
bring near the day when wars shall cease
and poverty and pain shall end,
that the earth may know the peace of heaven,
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

First Reading: Job 19: 23-27

Job said to his companions: 'O that my words were written down! O that they were inscribed in a book! O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock for ever! For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at the last he will stand upon the earth; and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then in my flesh I shall see God, whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another.'

Psalm: 17

R: I shall be filled when I awake with the sight of your glory, O Lord.

Lord, hear a cause that is just,
pay heed to my cry.
Turn your ear to my prayer:
no deceit is on my lips. R

I kept my feet firmly in your paths;
there was no faltering in my steps.
I am here and I call you, you will hear me, O God.
Turn your ear to me; hear my words. R

Guard me as the apple of your eye.
Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
As for me, in my justice I shall see your face and be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory. R

Second Reading:

2 Thessalonians 2: 1-5, 13-17

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you? But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Gospel acclamation

Alleluia...

Stay awake, praying at all times
for the strength to stand with confidence before the Son of Man.

Alleluia...

Gospel: St Luke 20: 27-38

Prayer over the Gifts

Gracious God,
whose word is the true food,
give us words to thank you for your gifts,
and lives that will be a blessing for others.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

God of peace,
whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom
and restored the broken to wholeness of life:
look with compassion on the anguish of the world,
and by your healing power
make whole both people and nations;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

THANKS FROM TRAIDCRAFT

It's because of people like you, and the ways in which you inspire your communities, that we can continue our work supporting people living in poverty to get a fair deal from trade and business.

Thank you so much for your generous donation of £130.00 to Traidcraft Exchange generated from your church afternoon tea. Your efforts will help support people like Dipali, who lives in Bangladesh. Since taking part in a project run by Traidcraft Exchange, she has started a small shop, which now supports her five children. Before the project they had to borrow money, and meals were just rice and lentils or vegetables. Now they have fish twice a week and each person has two or three eggs per week, but for Diplai, the greatest thing is that she can give her children breakfast before they go to school.

I hope her story gives you a sense of how life changing your contributions really are!
